

COBSCOOK BAY RESOURCE CENTER

PRESENTS

Mapping Cobscook Currents: What Happens When You Go With The Flow

- Learn how local students have been involved in mapping Cobscook currents.
- See maps of the pathways taken by GPS-equipped drifters.
- Hear the story about “the Day of the Lost Drifters.”
- Discover what drift study data has to do with red tide, fish farms or tidal power projects.

Wednesday, December 13th from 6:30-8:00PM in the library of the Edmunds Consolidated School.

All are welcome. Light refreshments will be served.

This is the second in a series of evening events that will be held this winter featuring stories and information about the Bay. The series will conclude with a Cobscook Bay Conference in March 2007.
